3. TO TRAVEL WITHOUT A PASS BOOK
4. TO ORGANIZE POLITICALLY
5. TO TAKE EFFECTIVE ACTION THRU LABOR UNIONS
6. TO BE UNEMPLOYED

II. American investment in South Africa is large and continually growing. It is illegal under South African law for American corporations to advocate these rights - even were they so inclined, which they aren't.

III. The Sullivan principles - adopted by some corporations - even where applied - do not answer to the free survival of black South Africans.

IV. Black South African leaders have asked that American corporations leave because the American corporate presence aids in the perpetuation of this repressive regime.
